Visitors will find life in Phoenix bursting with state-of-the-art sporting facilities and shiny office towers, excellent museums and art galleries, huge shopping malls with up-market boutiques and a lively nightlife.

Yet despite all this, it's only a short drive from untouched mountains and the spectacular landscapes of the Sonoran Desert.

Temperatures in Phoenix are at their warmest between the months of June, July, and August. Rainy weather can occur during July and August and thunderstorms may develop. Evenings are cooler.

CASINO NIGHT-Free transportation.
Free Vouchers to play. You can WIN!!!
Even on the bus.
6-11:30pm, Wed, July 20 (tentative date)

Using public transportation to get to and around Downtown Phoenix is easy and affordable.

The Phoenix METRO light rail, the bus system, DASH (Downtown Area Shuttle) and DEE (Downtown Evening Express) make it easy to get where you need to be

And don't forget about the free DEE (Downtown Evening Express). Every Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening starting at 6 p.m., you can hop aboard the DEE to get to all of downtown's night spots, including major venues, hotels, bars and restaurants

Frank Lloyd Wright began building this desert masterpiece in 1937 as his personal winter home, studio, and architectural campus. Located on the beautiful Sonoran desert in the foothills of the McDowell Mountains, visitors experience firsthand Wright's brilliant ability to integrate indoor and outdoor spaces.
