Associate Membership Information & Application

NACW is the only national membership organization representing Commissions on the Status of Women (or Women's Commissions) across the country. Women's Commissions are vital government-appointed advisory boards created by city, county and state legislation to monitor gender discrimination and to advocate for the full and equal participation of women and girls at all levels of society. As an Associate Member, you will be supporting NACW's ongoing mission to improve the status of women and girls by supporting our membership network of Women's Commissions with tools, resources and professional development that helps them survive and thrive.

Make the most of your NACW Associate Membership!

- Collaborate with top Women's Commissions across the country to share invaluable expertise and information
- Take action with periodic Issue Alerts via email
